STAY ACTIVE
You’ll find plenty of opportunities on campus to get that Jaguar blood pumping. Your recreation fee (just $15 per semester) gives you access to world-class recreational facilities like the IU Natatorium, where Olympic swimmers Michael Phelps and Ryan Lochte have competed, and the Carroll Track and Soccer Stadium, home to Indy Eleven, Indianapolis’s North American Soccer League team.
You can also take advantage of group fitness classes—everything from Pilates to yoga to Zumba—or play intramural sports like soccer, basketball, dodgeball, softball, flag football, and ultimate Frisbee.

GET INVOLVED
There are more than 400 student organizations at IUPUI—you’re sure to find one where you can make your mark. Help fight hunger in Indianapolis with Campus Kitchen, or mentor a child with College Mentors for Kids. Join the Student Sustainability Council, or make music with the University Choir.
No matter what your interests, at IUPUI you’ll find opportunities to explore your passions, make connections, and develop valuable skills.

FIND YOUR PLACE

Whether you are looking for a traditional residence hall experience or want to try something a little different, IUPUI has the place for you.

Ball Hall offers a traditional take on college residence halls, while University Tower is a four-star hotel turned IUPUI oasis dedicated to freshman living. Our Riverwalk Apartments and Townhomes at IUPUI are for students who want a taste of independence while still staying connected to the Jaguar community.

All of these options are within just a few minutes’ walk of your classes. And there are also plenty of off-campus housing options just a short distance away.

Campus housing is limited, so be sure to apply to live on campus as soon as you’re admitted. The guaranteed housing date is March 15.

MORE THAN 40% OF IUPUI FRESHMEN LIVE ON CAMPUS

STAY FUELED

With 100+ on- and off-campus eateries at IUPUI, you’ll have plenty of options when your stomach starts growling. You can get salads and sandwiches made to order in the University Tower dining hall, or enjoy a leisurely lunch at the Chancellor’s Restaurant. And if you need a caffeine fix between classes, you can stop by Caribou Coffee in the Campus Center.

Traditionally, IUPUI and the Indianapolis community come together in September for the IUPUI Regatta, a half-mile canoe race on the canal in downtown Indianapolis. Teams of IUPUI students, faculty, staff, and alumni compete in the race, which raises funds for scholarships for student leaders.
Indianapolis is the capital city and the economic hub of Indiana. So when it comes time to get the internships and other hands-on work experience that will give you a head start on your career, you’ll have lots of opportunities right at your fingertips.

Once home to Madame CJ Walker Hair Care and Beauty Products, the company founded by the country’s first self-made female millionaire, today the Madame Walker Theatre Center is a National Historic Landmark that celebrates African American culture and performing arts. You can experience more of Indianapolis’s vibrant arts and cultural scene at places like the Indiana Repertory Theatre, the Hilbert Circle Theatre, and the Old National Centre.

Located in the heart of downtown Indianapolis, White River State Park is Indiana’s only urban state park. Stroll through the park’s 250 acres of green space, rent a pedal boat for a trip along the canal, or visit cultural attractions like the Indianapolis Zoo, the NCAA Hall of Champions, or the Indiana State Museum.
Indianapolis is home to world-class museums like the Eiteljorg Museum of American Indians and Western Art, where you can explore an internationally renowned collection of Western and Native American art and cultural objects. You also won’t want to miss the Indianapolis Museum of Art and the Children’s Museum of Indianapolis.

At Lucas Oil Stadium, you can cheer on the Colts, Indianapolis’s NFL team. But even if you aren’t a football fan, you’ll still have plenty of chances to enjoy sporting events in Indianapolis. Catch some pro hoops action at an Indiana Pacers or Indiana Fever game, enjoy an afternoon of baseball with the Indianapolis Indians, or cheer on the Indy Fuel, a Chicago Blackhawks affiliate hockey team.

And don’t forget about motorsports—the city is home to the Indianapolis 500, the Brickyard 400, the Red Bull Indianapolis Grand Prix, and more.

As an IUPUI student, you’ll live and learn in the heart of the nation’s twelfth-largest city. Discover more about life in Indianapolis at iupui.edu/city.

At IUPUI, we’re committed to making an impact in the community. From service learning courses to volunteer opportunities, you’ll have lots of ways to get involved with the community during your time here.

PRIORITY APPLICATION DEADLINES
You must submit your application for admission and supporting materials by the priority deadline in order to receive full consideration for the term in which you want to begin attending IUPUI.

- For fall semester: May 1
- For spring semester: November 1
- For summer session I: March 15
- For summer session II: May 1

TUITION AND FINANCIAL AID
We know that college is a big investment. When you choose IUPUI, you can feel confident that you’re getting a great value for your tuition dollars.

TUITION AND FEES
We work hard to keep IUPUI tuition as low as possible. The estimated costs provided below are a good starting place for planning, but remember that your costs will depend on the degree program you choose as well as factors such as whether you live on or off campus.

To find out how much it will cost for you to attend IUPUI, use our interactive tuition and fee calculator at estimator.iupui.edu.

FINANCIAL AID
You have lots of options for paying for your IUPUI education, including loans, grants, and scholarships.

The first step in applying for financial aid is to complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). When you complete your FAFSA, you’ll be considered for a variety of state and federal financial aid programs, including loans, grants, and work-study positions.

The priority deadline for completing your FAFSA is March 10.

To find out your eligibility for financial aid and estimate your out-of-pocket expenses, use our interactive net price calculator at enroll.iupui.edu/npc.

Learn more about financial aid at iupui.edu/finaid.

2015–16 ESTIMATED COSTS OF ATTENDANCE FOR UNDERGRADUATE STUDENTS
These costs are provided for a full year (two semesters) of study at IUPUI and are for initial planning only. The Indiana University Board of Trustees annually reviews tuition and fees, which are set in late spring or summer and are effective for the next full term.

STEP 1: PREPARE TO APPLY
• Visit enroll.iupui.edu to review our admission standards, application process, and priority deadlines. Start early to make sure you submit all your application materials on time.

STEP 2: SUBMIT YOUR APPLICATION
• Complete the online application.
• Ask your high school to send us your official transcript.
• Have your ACT and/or SAT scores sent to IUPUI directly from the testing agency. We will also accept ACT and/or SAT scores from your high school transcript.
• Submit any AP scores and/or college transcripts for dual credit courses.

STEP 3: AFTER YOU APPLY
• Go to itaccounts.iu.edu to create your IUPUI computing accounts so you can check the status of your application online.

SCHOLARSHIPS
When you submit your application for admission, you’ll automatically be considered for admission-based scholarships, which are awarded on the basis of your high school GPA and SAT/ACT scores. The chart below lists the various admission-based scholarships that are available at IUPUI.

You can also apply for competitive and major-specific scholarships.

Early admission to IUPUI is the best way you can ensure maximum consideration for scholarships. Apply for fall admission by November 15 to receive full consideration.

Qualifications and deadlines for scholarship consideration vary. Visit scholarships.iupui.edu for complete information.
